Making Adjustments: If there is anything you need us to tweak in getting your room ready for Sunday please let us know. Everything seemed to go very well this past Sunday!

New Curriculum: Your next set of lessons (Titus and Philemon) will be in your attendance notebooks on Sunday, July 18. We will teach Titus 1 on July 25.

Summer High Attendance Day: Our next big day is August 22. Our goal is for each class to have their best day of June, July and August. We will be tracking what your biggest day is and letting you know in the next few weeks what your goal will be. Of course, your goal can shift if you meet it before August 15. (No sandbagging!)

Next Week: Jeff will be on vacation. Call Mindy if you have any questions or concerns.
