

Teacher's Notes for Sunday, February 9, 2025

Teachers –

I am in Mexico on our mission trip so I do not have the numbers to update you on this past Sunday. Here are the things you need to know for this coming Sunday. If you need anything Sunday School-related, please feel free to contact Mindy at the church office and she will help you.

Lord willing, we will return on Tuesday, February 11. Please be praying for us and I will see you when I return...JJ
