BIBLE STUDY:

1. What is the Gospel?
 - a. 1 Corinthians 15:1-4 is the clearest expression of the Gospel in the Bible.
 - b. The Gospel is the _____, _____ and _____ of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The word “gospel” comes from a combination of two old English words – good spell, or spelling out good things, telling good things.
 - d. The Greek word literally means “good news.”
 - e. The Gospel is the good news of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus.

2. Why is the Gospel Good News?
 - a. Man has a problem. That problem is _____ (3a).
 - b. Sin brings about three things:
 - i. Sin brings _____. We are each sinners by choice. Sin is a violation of God’s holy law. Because we break God’s law, we have a sin-debt. (See Romans 3:23 & 6:23.)
 - ii. Sin brings _____. We are sinners by nature. It is who we are. We are impure, dishonored and unfit for God’s presence. We are defiled. (See Mark 7:20-23.)
 - iii. Sin brings _____. Sin rules over us. Instead of being under the dominion of Christ, we are mastered by our sin. (See Romans 7:15-24, esp. 23-24.)
 - c. How does the Gospel overcome our debt, defilement and dominion problems?

3. The _____ of the Gospel
 - a. By Christ’s _____, our sin debt was removed (vs. 3).
 - i. His death is a blood atonement that pays the debt we owe to God. Jesus paid our sin debt.
 - ii. Jesus paid it all! When we receive the Gospel, our sin is paid for, and the penalty and the debt is taken away.
 - b. By Christ’s _____, sin’s defilement was cleansed (vs. 4a).
 - i. Jesus was buried to prove that Jesus was dead.
 - ii. His burial was the confirmation and completion of Jesus’s sacrificial death through which our guilt and pollution are dealt with.

- iii. Paul ties this together in Romans 6:4. When we are saved, sin's power and defilement are broken.
 - c. By Christ's _____, sin's dominion is broken.
 - i. Jesus's resurrection is God's stamp of approval on Christ, distinguishing Him from Buddha, Confucius, and Mohammed, who all died and remained dead.
 - ii. By rising, He breaks sin's dominion, saves us from "me," and lives His life in and through believers.
 - d. The intent of the Gospel? _____ and be saved! "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31; Romans 1:16).
- 4. The _____ of the Gospel
 - a. The Gospel extends to every _____. The gospel is for all. (See John 3:16 – "the world.")
 - b. The Gospel extends to every _____. One can be saved anywhere from any place.
 - c. The Gospel extends to every _____. Only the gospel addresses humanity's three major problems: sin, sorrow, and death.
 - d. As we seek to obey our commission, we cannot take the Gospel to the wrong person or the wrong place!

APPLICATION:

- ⇒ Look back at your answers to the questions we asked at the beginning of this lesson.
- ⇒ Read to yourself what you wrote. The difference between Heaven and Hell is the Gospel. The only reason anyone will go to Heaven is because they have received the Gospel.
- ⇒ How sure are you now? If you cannot say 100%, please talk with your teacher today!
